New York er en historisk roman, der udspiller sig i New York gennem 350 år. Medrivende familiesagaer udfolder sig, mens New York udvikler sig og oplever historiske begivenheder som Uafhængighedskrigen, den amerikanske borgerkrig, krakket på Wall Street og tragedien 11. september 2001. Byen danner rammen om familiedramaer i jagten på frihed, status, rigdom og anerkendelse. Undervejs møder hovedpersonerne historiske personligheder som George Washington, Benjamin Franklin og Abraham Lincoln, og bliver involveret i handel, politik og byggeriet af Empire State Building, men det er også en fortælling om kærlighed. Både lykkelig kærlighed og umulig, uforløst kærlighed.

New York er en New York Times' bestseller og vinder af Langum-prisen 2009 for amerikansk historisk fiktion.
