Med få dollar på lommen og store digterdrømme i bagagen ankommer Patti tyve år gammel til New York. Her møder hun den unge kunstnerspire Robert, og de to slutter en smuk, livslang pagt. Det er den hede sommer '67, og rundt om dem er der oprud på alle fronter. De er ludfattige, oprørske og slås for mad og husly – og for den fælles kunstneriske ambition.

Begge opnår de en dag verdensberømmelse, Patti Smith som poet og performer, Robert Mapplethorpe som eksperimentel fotograf. Her handler det om vejen dertil. I 1969 flytter de to ind i det sagnomspundne Chelsea Hotel og dermed ind i tryllekredsen af berømte og berygtede, som i den periode gjorde New York til verdens vildeste kunstscene.

Bogen er en hyldest til storbyen og kunsten, til drømme og visioner. Frem for alt er JUST KIDS en bevægende historie om kærlighed og venskab i et ubrydeligt skæbnefælleskab.
